

ROLAND FOODS -- Received 12/13/2016

Food Safety & Quality Assurance Internship

SUMMARY OF POSITION:

The FSQA Intern is an entrée level job that will be responsible for working on special projects like documenting shelf life, net weights and label compliance to verify integrity of data for a new system.

Qualifications and Skills:

- Great communication skills. Will work with multiple members of Quality Team and other departments.
- Ability to think independently and with little supervision.
- Resolves opportunities with alternative solutions.
- Willingness to jump in and learn new systems and processes.
- Proficient in excel and word. Including VLOOKUP and merging files.
- Great attention to detail a must.
- Food safety and nutrition knowledge; general food science knowledge; familiar with analytical and microbiological terms.

Send resume to: Carole Guerrette <Carole.Guerrette@rolandfood.com>

CAROLE GUERRETTE

Director of Food Safety and Quality Assurance
Roland Foods